Flights

From this view you can add, edit and delete flights.

To add a flight, you must give specific flight information, such as the aircraft registration number, origin airport, destiny airport, departure time, landing time and flight price, you can see an example of proper flight creation on figure 6.

As in flight adding section, in order to edit a flight, you have to click on the edit button of the flight that you want to edit, then, you will see the previous view (Figure 6), where you can edit all the flight information, including the flight state, this state refers to the client possibility of doing check-in, this value will always start on "Cerrado" when you create a flight, but you can change it from here in order to allow clients check-in.

Promotions

From this view you can add, edit and delete promotions.

To create a promotion, you have to fill the next form, giving some promotion information as the trip in promotion, a promotion picture, promotion start and end date, and its respective price, and once you are done, then click on "Guardar" to save that promotion.

In the same way that you edit trips and flights, you can also edit promotions by clicking on edit button of the promotion of your choice, and modifying the promotion information that you have to change, then click "Guardar" and your promotion will be edited.
